

Standard Format for Joseph Campbell Roundtable (Toronto, Canada)

AGENDA

Being a Roundtable, the session will loosely follow Christina Baldwin's¹ circle methodology, as follows:

Time	Activity
7:10	Calling the Circle and Check-In – We convene and turn our attention inward towards the group and the evening's topic. Every voice is heard briefly as we do so. What brings me here tonight is...
7:20 – 8:20	Subject-matter presentation – We listen and/or watch.
8:20 – 8:55	Group discussion – We each speak from our own perspective and reflect non-judgmentally on what others say. We are mindful of sharing the time and space. The “centre” of our circle belongs to everyone and to no one. It is a container for our collective thoughts.
8:55	Check-out and Closing the Circle – We each make a closing comment if we wish. We finish and release ourselves from the discipline of the circle. Once again, every voice is heard. I'm leaving here tonight...

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

In the spirit of respectful dialogue, we engage in:

Intentional speaking – we will contribute what has relevance, heart and meaning to the topic of the moment

Attentive listening – we will focus clearly on what is being said by someone else

Self-awareness – we will consider the impact of our words and actions before, during and after we interact.

¹ See Calling The Circle: The First and Future Culture by Christina Baldwin; ISBN 0-553-37900-3